"THE RADIO KING"

Universal Chapter-Play

Starring ROY STEWART

No. 6—"The S. O. S."

TO save Lane's life, Ruth reveals the hiding place of the disc. She and Lane, still prisoners, are confined in different quarters of the ship. Jimmy, believed lost, saves himself by catching hold of a rope trailing from the ship's stern and climbs aboard, hiding himself under a tarpaulin. The two cloaked men meet in Lane's laboratory and fight for the disc.

Meanwhile, Jimmy has stolen Renally's keys and releases Lane and Ruth. Lane and he try to force their way in to the radio shack to send an S. O. S. signal of distress. The ship catches fire, Lane, Ruth and Jimmy are locked in a burning cabin, the wireless antenna is locked in a burning cabin, the wireless antenna is dismantled and all the life-boats taken.

Patty Evans, who has completed his home-made radio out of makeshift materials, picks up the S. O. S. and notifies the people who put to sea in a patrol boat, too late, however. Helpless in the burning cabin, overcome by flames and fumes the three captives cannot escape as the ship, exploding, sinks.
